

To whom it may Concern

Mr & Mrs Ripley of Andover having proposed to liberate a colored man, by the name of Abram, now in Georgia & considered in law as belonging to them, on condition of his coming to the North to reside, the undersigned heretofore engages to see that Abram, on his arrival here, is taken care of until he can find employment at his trade or at service in some good place; & subsequently, that he, in person or by other friends, will extend to Abram, the advice & kind offices of a friend & guardian

Amos A. Phelps.

Boston June 24th 1837.

Engagement to
Prof. H. J. Ripley